DO YOU KNOW HOW BOSTON COLLEGE'S EXPANSION WILL AFFECT YOU?

ARE YOU PREPARED FOR...

- ...loss of tens of thousands of dollars on the value of your home?
- ...increase in property taxes?
- ...more traffic, fewer parking spaces?
- ...less green space?

Do you know that the Boston Zoning Commission is voting on the approval of BC's expansion plans on May 6th?

ARE YOU PREPARED FOR...

- ...the loss of conservation protected land (the Seminary site)?*
- ...intramural fields with flood lights every week night until 10pm?*

- ...an intensely used baseball stadium and athletic facilities?*
- ...high powered sound systems, fewer available parking spaces and more trash, crowd noise, foot traffic in the middle of a family neighborhood?*

ARE YOU PREPARED FOR...

- ...a shrinking tax base in Brighton, costing jobs for police officers, firefighters, and teachers AND*
- ... to pay more real estate tax to subsidize properties taken off the market by tax exempt institutions like BC?*

BC's purchase of 2000 Comm. Ave. and conversion to dormitory will take $416,000 per year from the City's tax base.

- ...the negative impact of 560 students living on the edge of the Chestnut Hill reservoir (increased noise, trash, and foot traffic)?*
- ...loss of over 200 off-street parking spaces?*
